

CONSULAR LEGALISATION OF SINGAPOREAN DOCUMENTS TO BE USED IN VIETNAM

1. For Government-Issued Documents (Marriages certificates, Birth certificates and Educational certificates) and Computer-generated documents

Step 1: Originals/photocopies to be authenticated by the Singapore Academy of Law

Step 2: Authenticated documents to be submitted to the Vietnam Embassy in Singapore alongside identification for consular legalization

Step 3: Obtaining a certified copy and a certified translation of the consular legalised document at the District People's Committee of Vietnam's Justice Division or a notary service in Vietnam.

2. For Non-Government Documents (foreign, private, company documents)

- Step 1: Notarization of documents by the Notary Public in Singapore
- Step 2: Notarized documents to be certified by the Singapore Academy of Law
- Step 3: Notarized documents to be certified by the Vietnam Embassy in Singapore
- Step 4: Obtaining a certified copy and a certified translation of the consular legalised document at the District People's Committee of Vietnam's Justice Division or a notary service in Vietnam.

Address of SAL: No. 1 Supreme Court Lane, Level 5M, Singapore 178879

Address of Vietnam Embassy in Singapore: 10 Leedon Park, Singapore 267887

For detailed information, please visit the website of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Singapore at <https://www.mfa.gov.sg/Overseas-Mission/Ho-Chi-Minh-City/Consular-Services/Notarial-and-Authentication-Services>